

Job Title: Communications Officer
Start Date: Jan 2026
Work Type: Remote Working
Salary: TBD

Amirrah Overview

Amirrah is a nonprofit organization set up to provide support for young mothers-to-be and their newborn(s) in India and Kenya. We work across four main verticals to promote access to sexual and reproductive health, encourage freedom and choice vis-a-vis planned and/or unplanned pregnancies, support mothers' mental and physical wellbeing and provide early childhood development resources for newborns.

About The Role

As a relatively new organization (founded in July 2021) our current efforts are dedicated towards developing our verticals in our focused geographies. In line with this, we are seeking to hire a communications officer who can support us in strategic communication and branding, media relations and agency, digital and social media management as well as internal communication. More detailed responsibilities for this position are listed below:

- Develop and implement Amirrah's communications strategy aligned with its mission and goals
- Craft key messages tailored for different audiences (donors, beneficiaries, partners, media and the public)
- Manage the organization's social media channels, website and newsletters
- Develop engaging content to showcase impact
- Ensure consistent branding and messaging across all platforms
- Support effective information flow within the organisation
- Develop internal updates and staff communications
- Produce ad hoc reports, brochures, case studies and impact stories for project/partnership related purposes

Ideal Candidate

The ideal candidate for this position will:

- Be a passionate and creative individual
- Have exceptional written and verbal communication and storytelling skills
- Hold proficiency in managing platforms like Twitter/X, LinkedIn, Instagram and Facebook
- Hold ability to create engaging multimedia content

- Have quick decision-making under pressure whilst also understanding reputation risk management

Bonus skills to support this position:

- Multilingual abilities - Knowledge of Hindi and/or Swahili
- Experience with advocacy or policy communication
- Training or capacity building skills (to support staff/ volunteers with communication)

If this sounds like you, do reach out to us at recruitment@ngoamirrah.org and please feel free to share this opportunity with your network.
